Suit Against H. T. Shirley May be Concluded Saturday.

After Prosecuting Attorney Willey had put in all the evidence for the city yesterday afternoon in the case of H. T. Shirley, the cab driver charged with violating revised city ordinances 767 and 765, relating to the rights of "cabby" at depots, Attorney Largent for the defense moved for dismissal, Judge Diehl, however, refused to grant the motion.

It developed during yesterday's hearing that a brother cabman, Harry Taylor, had caused Shirley's arrest for the alleged soliciting of patronage on restricted territory at the Rio Grande depot. Taylor noticed Shirley talking to tourists and notified a patrolman that the latter was violating the ordinance. Taylor drives for a competing company. Taylor himself took the stand for the city. Several other carriage drivers testified.

FRANKLAND GETS LAWYER.

Aftermath of the "Puppy in the Street Car Incident."

M. J. Frankland, the ticket broker, who claims he was roughly handled by Conductor J. O. Brunson of the East First South street line after the latter had ejected him for refusing to desert a small puppy which he carried with him onto the car, has not yet begun proceedings against the conductor or company. Mr. Frankland made the following statement yesterday: "I am not acting in this matter in a spirit of vindictiveness, but I do intend that if my rights have been violated those responsible shall be punished. I have consulted an attorney and he is now looking up the facts in the case. I will act entirely upon his advice. I believe that a man subjected to the treatment and humiliation that I was Wednesday evening has some recourse through the law."

TO CELEBRATE WITH SOLEMN SERVICE YOM KIPPUR, THE DAY OF ATONEMENT

Yom Kippur, the Jewish day of atonement, and the tenth of the new year, is to be celebrated Sunday evening with services at the synagogue, during which Rabbi Louis G. Reynolds will preach. The Jewish day of atonement lasts twenty-four hours, beginning with sundown of the ninth and continuing until sundown of the tenth day. It is always observed in a religious manner by those of the Jewish faith.

ATTENDANCE IS LARGER

Increase in Number of Children at District Schools Estimated at 500.

The majority of the schools in the country districts have made gains. The first day's attendance to E. W. Astor, county superintendent of schools, Heron, estimates the total number will be about 8,900, nearly half a thousand more than last year.

COURT NOTES.

James Blake of Riverton, Salt Lake county, filed a petition of voluntary bankruptcy yesterday in the federal court. His liabilities were given as $1,700.86, and his assets were set forth as $725.64.

The divorce proceedings brought by Gertrude Chamberlin against Herbert M. Chamberlin were dismissed, at the wife's cost, by Judge Hall yesterday. The couple had settled their differences out of court.

Thomas W. Stevenson and Andrew P. Jacobson of Forest Dale, partners under the firm name of the Forest Dale Meat & Grocery company, filed a petition of bankruptcy yesterday in the federal court. The couple were married in December, 1903, and have two daughters, who give over to the custody of the mother.

Judge Hall yesterday refused to hear the motion of David Magee to strike out the firm name of the Forest Dale Meat & Grocery company from the divorce suit brought by his wife, Polly Magee, because her husband failed to comply with the order of the court to pay the woman $10 a month alimony.

MANY MEN WGRK ON NEW SHOPS

Oregon Short Line Has 150 Now Employed.

FORCE TO BE INCREASED

FIRST LABOR IS IN BUILDING THE YARDS.

One hundred and fifty men are now at work in the new switch yards of the Oregon Short Line in North Salt Lake, and this number is to be increased within the next few days to between 200 and 300. These men are at work laying new tracks and ballasting the old ones, filling the swamp with gravel and the new yards spread out in the shape of a fan from Fourth West out to the main line. This fan-like tract extends to Ninth North street, and from there it tapers off to the width of the regular right of way. From Fifth North street to the northern limit of the yards is a mile and a half, which gives a good idea of the extent of the work being done.

Gravel from the pit to the north is being poured into this tract to fill it up to grade at the rate of 150 carloads each day. This is loaded upon the cars by a steam shovel in the pit and scraped off by the engine. It is even spread over the ground by a steam-spreader attached to a car. The fill runs from two to five feet. The gravel is run in on an improvised track and this track is moved as the filling progresses. By this means a swamp is to be transformed into one of the best and most modern of the kind in the west.

The roundhouse of twenty stalls is still in an incipient stage, but the work upon it is going forward steadily. Piles are being driven into the ground from thirty to forty-five feet as the nature of the case demands. They are driven down to bedrock and a concrete bed is laid upon these piles as a foundation for the roundhouse. Two thousand of these piles are being used. Just as soon as the work on the roundhouse is well under way, work on the shops will be started. These are to be located near Ninth North and Fourth West streets.

D. F. WALKER ON THE BOARD.

Former Salt Lake Director of the Western Pacific. David F. Walker, formerly of Salt Lake, one of the Walker brothers who played so prominent a part in the commercial life of the city, has been placed on the board of directors of the Western Pacific Railroad company that is to construct the line from Salt Lake to San Francisco.

The full list, including William H. Taylor, who was chosen a director recently to succeed James Treadwell and E. T. Jeffrey, is as follows: J. H. Henry, F. Fortmann, president of the Alaska Packers' association; David F. Walker, capitalist, formerly of Walker Brothers, bankers, of Salt Lake City; John Lloyd, president of German Savings & Loan society; George A. Batchelder, of the banking house of E. H. Rollins & Sons, Boston and San Francisco; F. M. West, president of the Stockton Savings & Loan society; J. Dalzell Brown, vice president and general manager of the California Safe Deposit & Trust company; A. C. Kains, manager of the San Francisco branch of the Canadian Bank of Commerce; John Treadwell of San Francisco, formerly owner of the Alaska Treadwell mine; Edward T. Jeffrey, president of the Denver & Rio Grande Railway company; William H. Taylor, vice president of the Bowling Green Trust company of New York, vice president of the Mercantile National bank of New York, member of the executive committee of the St. Louis & Southwestern railway, and vice president of the American District Telegraph company; W. J. Barnett, attorney-at-law, San Francisco.

NEW JOB FOR KOEHLER.

Calvin Appoints Him Purchasing Agent of Oregon Lines. Portland, Ore., Sept. 15.—Within the next few days a circular will be issued, says the Oregonian, appointing Richard Koehler, formerly manager of the Northern Pacific lines in Oregon, purchasing agent for the Southern Pacific-Oregon Railway & Navigation system in Oregon. The office of purchasing agent of the Oregon Railway & Navigation company, formerly occupied by F. G. Wheeler, has been abolished, together with the office of manager of the Southern Pacific lines in Oregon.

The entire management of the consolidated lines has been placed in the hands of E. E. Calvin, General Manager. Calvin has prepared and submitted to the executive board plans for many changes in the operating system of the roads, the changes recommended affecting every department.

Have You Some Ready Money to Accept a Good Business Offer? READY MONEY is a Remedy for many ills. Cornelius Vanderbilt's rule for saving: "No matter what I was earning I always made it a rule to save something. The money will pile up in time." A machinist said: "I could easily have saved $20.00 a week for the next thirty years." Now, if he had only saved $10 a week for thirty years he would have in the bank today $25,217.50. Think it over—figure out what he could have saved. A lady teacher who had $750.00 in the bank said: "I never would have saved a cent but for the little HOME SAVINGS BANK. Three girls purchased a $200 piano after using a little bank eighteen months."

Did You Ever Consider How much money you were spending thoughtlessly? You are earning money every day? Are you saving any money? Could you easily save more?

"A Savings Account is a Friend in Adversity." The more limited your income the more imperative is your duty to save. We have been educated to SPEND MONEY—now let us educate ourselves to SAVE MONEY instead of patronizing the various slot machines and devices for collecting small account or needlessly spending it "just because it is so small." Open a savings account—take a HOME SAVINGS BANK and DROP SOME MONEY INTO IT EVERY DAY—you will soon be surprised at the amount to your credit in the bank.

How to Get Rid of Mice. A lady reader has written us asking that we publish for the benefit of all house-wives a recipe for exterminating mice. She says her life was almost unbearable by these little pests until she read of Stearns' Electric Rat and Mice Paste, which completely freed her home from mice. This Paste is easy to use, and greedily devoured by rats, mice, cockroaches and other vermin. It is sure death, and gives universal satisfaction, especially as the rats and mice do not die in the house. Dealers generally have the Paste for sale, or package will be sent, express prepaid on receipt of price, by the Stearns' Electric Paste Co., Tribune Building, Chicago, Ill. Small size, 25c. Hotel size, eight times the quantity, $1.00.
